Conference from 8.00am Celebration Dinner from 6.00pm

The Alliance Conference 2026 will bring together approximately 200 senior leaders, employers, government representatives and decision-makers from across the Indigenous employment and training sector.

Exclusive to Alliance members and eligible organisations, exhibiting at The Alliance Conference is an opportunity to showcase your organisation, products or services to a highly engaged audience committed to advancing First Nations employment outcomes. Member discounts are available.

Why Exhibit?

As an exhibitor you'll have the opportunity to:

- Showcase your products, services or initiatives
- Connect with senior decision-makers, employers and industry leaders
- Generate new business opportunities and partnerships
- Increase brand visibility within the Indigenous employment and training sector
- Network throughout the day during dedicated exhibition and catering breaks.

Exhibitor Packages include:

- One trestle table with two chairs and power access
- One complimentary conference day ticket (including all catering)
- Company listing in the conference website and relevant event materials
- Opportunity to display promotional materials, banners and signage
- Access to delegates throughout networking breaks and lunch
- Please note, dinner tickets can be purchased separately.

Who You'll Meet

Building on the success of our inaugural conference, which welcomed more than 200 delegates from 40+ employers, member organisations and government agencies, the 2026 conference will bring together an even broader audience from across Australia, including:

- Government – Senior executives, policymakers and workforce leaders
- Alliance Members & Sector Organisations – CEOs, employment service providers, RTOs and Aboriginal Community Controlled Organisations
- Industry & Employers – HR professionals, Indigenous Employment Specialists, Inclusion, ESG and RAP professionals
- Education & Training – Workforce development and skills leaders
- Community Leaders & Partners – Organisations driving collaboration, innovation and employment outcomes for First Nations communities.

Eligibility
